In the noon proceed for sight seeing of Kochi visiting St. Mary's Cathedral, Jewish Synagogue, St. Francis Church Dutch Palace, Chinese fishing nets. Evening witness Kathakal Dance Performance. Overnight at Kochi.

Day02Munnar

After breakfast proceed to Munnar (130 Kms), lover's paradise. Check in to your resort by noon.

Munnar is one of the most naturally beautiful hill-stations in South India. The word "Munnar" means three rivers. 3 mountain streams Madurapuzha, Nallathanni and Kundala are joining together here. The former, mainly in Devikulam Taluk of Idukki district, Munnar is usually known as the Kanan Devan hills or the High Ranges. The natural beauty, calmness and mild cold climate throughout the year makes it the favorite tourist place of both Indians and foreigners.

Traditions of a quaint British tea plantation town are still preserved in this heavenly and unspoiled hill station. Munnar abounds in animals like elephants and Nilgiri Tahrs and rich biodiversity teeming with flora and fauna. Among the exotic flora found in the forests here is the "Neela Kurinji". This flower which bathes the hills in blue every 12 years, will bloom next in 2006 A.D.

Day03Munnar

After breakfast proceed for Half day sight seeing of Munnar visiting Tea plantation, Cheeyappara water falls, view point, Devikulam etc. Overnight at Munnar.

Day04Thekkady

Drive to Thekkady also known as Periyar (110 kms). Drive thru' the dense rubber. The very sound of the name conjures up images of elephants, unending chains of hill and spice scented plantations. Here, in the crisp, cool air of the Western Ghats you will experience the most enchanting holiday. Periyar forest of Thekkady is one of the finest wildlife reserves in India, and spread across the entire district are picturesque plantations and hill towns that hold great opportunities for treks and mountain walks. A cruise through the waters of Periyar lake around which the wild -life sanctuary is situated, offers a soul - stirring pleasant experience. The Thekkady sanctuary is one of the best in the country for watching and photographing wild life.

Day05Periyar
